Limited Wasp Technical support due to inclement weather

2015-03-05 - Internal User - in General

Thursday March 5, 2015 -

Wasp Technical Support will have limited phone and email support availability due to local inclement weather.

Although support will be limited, please submit a tech support ticket to log your issue. Our Technical Support Specialists will provide assistance for your issue as soon as possible.

Wasp Technical Support does apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, but appreciate your loyalty and understanding.
