Wasp Software Registration and Activation Key

2015-11-17 - Internal User - in General

After your Wasp Software has been installed you might get a prompt to Register or Enter Your Activation Key. Registration must be done on our main website.

You are required to first register an account for our main website www.waspbarcode.com. This account is different from the account you might have at our tech support website support.waspbarcode.com. Once signed into the website account you can register software for your account. After registering your software the activation key will be automatically emailed.

Follow the steps below to register for a website and account and your Wasp Barcode Technologies software:

1. Go to <http://www.waspbarcode.com/support/product-registration>
