I have my Wasp Laser scanner connected correctly to my PC and it is not lighting up or beeping.

Internal User - 2017-04-10 - Scanners

Check the cable connection at the base of the scanner. The cable should click into place if connected properly. You also might want to use a paper clip to remove the cable and re attach it. It should beep after the connection is made.