

Knowledgebase > Software > Labeler > Version 7 > Labeler - How To - I am using a label with price in dollars and cents - the label is mapped to a spreadsheet or other data source. When I have a price like \$2.50, my labels are printing \$2.5. How do I get the final zero to display correctly.

Labeler - How To - I am using a label with price in dollars and cents - the label is mapped to a spreadsheet or other data source. When I have a price like $2.50, my labels are printing $2.5. How do I get the final zero to display correctly.

Internal User - 2017-04-10 - Version 7

Right-click on the object in your label being used to display the price. Click Source. Click the Formatting tab. Type $0.00 in the Format String blank. Click Apply and then OK. Click File > Print Preview > Print Preview to see your changes before printing to confirm the change was effective.