QuickStore: After importing customer records into QuickStore, some or all of the customers are missing

Max Holden - 2017-04-10 - Software
Last Name is a required field in QuickStore.

If a record in the import file contains a space or an empty string in the Last Name field, the record will not be imported and no error will be shown.

Make sure that all customer records contain a Last Name.

Related Content

- QuickStore: How to import a CSV file from Excel for products but with weight and description longer than 25 characters
- QuickStore: How to import inventory quantity