Software required for scanners to operate

Max Holden - 2017-04-10 - Hardware
Wasp Scanners do not require any software.

The barcode scanners work like keyboards.

The characters from a scanned barcode are "typed" into the active application just as if the keyboard had been used.